

In some cases, it is necessary to have different objects on the game board, but when collected, these objects are collected into one common target.

For example

To do this, you need to add a unique group identifier to the object prefab:

